

Monday's vote MUST be delayed until a real public hearing can take place. There are too many people in this DEMOCRACY who have real problem with this government agency right now. They demand to be heard.